Student Activities

It's Promposal Week!! The Prom is this Saturday at the Discovery Cube Science Center in Santa Ana. Have you asked that special someone to the dance? Come out at lunch today, Thursday or Friday and deliver a special invite! You bring the words, the Junior Class Officers will be there to help you with the microphone!

Prom tickets will be on sale through Friday at lunch! Tickets are $70 per person. VIP cardholders will pay $60. CASH ONLY! A reminder that your Prom Contract must be signed by the Attendance Office, Discipline Office and the Bookkeeper. The dance begins at 8:00 p.m. and ends at midnight. All guests must provide their own ride to and from the dance. All guests must be picked up at midnight. Students picked up late will jeopardize their opportunity to attend future events!

2017-2018 Class Elections will be held TODAY through Literature classes. Good-luck to all candidates! Petitions are still available for Class of 2020 Co-Publicity and Co-Social and Class of 2019 Co-Social.

Attention All Students: Senior Exhibition will be held on Wednesday, April 26. We will be on minimum day bell schedule! Classes will be dismissed at 12:05 p.m. and lunch served through 12:40 p.m. In order to prepare the campus for Senior Exhibition, all students will be asked to leave campus at 12:40 p.m. Enjoy your minimum day!

Seniors: Senior Exhibition is here! Dress for success on Wednesday and plan to arrive in Room #323 at least 30 minutes before your appointment time.

Attention Senior Guys: Do you have what it takes to be Mr. Husky? Do you have a special talent? Can you answer trivia questions? Do you have a funny outfit or costume? Apply for the Mr. Husky Pageant! Renaissance is looking for unique and talented senior guys to participate in the first Annual Mr. Husky Pageant to be held on Thursday, May 18 in the theater at 7:00 p.m. Candidates can be nominated by a club, organization, sport, teacher, friend ~ or you can nominate yourself! Nomination forms are available in the Student Activities Office and are due on Friday, April 28.

Grad Nite tickets will go back on sale next week! Tickets will be $60 for grads and $80 for guests while supplies last! Permission slips are available in the Student Activities Office.

Attention Seniors: Would you like to speak or perform at Baccalaureate or Commencement! Senior Speech and Performance Tryouts will be held on Tuesday, May 2 and Thursday, May 4 from 3-4:00 p.m. in the Choir Room. Whatever your talent ~ singing, dancing, rapping, spoken word, instrumentals, speaking, etc. ~ come try out for this year's senior activities! Talented seniors needed! Sign up with Mr. Schive in Room #247 or Miss Porter in #156 ~ or just show up on May 2 or May 4!

CAREER

ATTENTION JUNIORS AND SENIORS! A representative will be here from Montana State University on Wednesday, April 26. Please sign up in the Career Center and get a pass to attend this informational presentation.

Are you a graduating senior who plans to attend college in the fall? Do you plan on studying public policy? International affairs? Political Science? Other public policy majors? You might qualify for a John W. North Public Policy scholarship. This scholarship is funded by a North former graduate. Please see Mr. Flores in the Guidance Office for further information.

Seniors—Are you planning to attend RCC this summer or fall? We will have an RCC Ambassador here to answer your questions every Monday from 9am to 11am. You can schedule an appointment in the guidance office or just drop in between classes!

Seniors! The FAFSA deadline for Cal Grant consideration has passed. For those who still have not submitted a FAFSA or Dream App, you can still submit yours to be considered for other forms of financial aid! See your counselor if you need help!
